THE INDIA CONFERENCE 2025

A Group Relations Conference / समुहा सम्बंध सम्मेलन

Theme:

"Exploring Leadership, the Exercise of Authority, and Management of Self in Organization (ELAMSO)"

THURSDAY: 30 OCTOBER 2025 TO SUNDAY: 02 NOVEMBER 2025

CEO CENTRE, BANGALORE, INDIA

THE CONTEXT

Personal anxiety can significantly impact individual aspiration to grow into senior leadership roles in an organization. The key performance areas that are impacted are Decision-Making: Leadership: Strategic Thinking: Interpersonal Relationships: Risk Appetite and, most important, Increased Personal Stress. TIC 25 will address anxiety in individuals so that they can learn to de-risk themselves and maintain effective leadership demanded in senior roles.

THE PRIMARY TASK

The primary task is set in the aforementioned context and will explore how to let go behaviors that have become non-functional. Consequently, TIC 25 will be about the exercise of personal authority within the boundaries of time and territory.

Territory, in GR language, is the physical space in which we relate with others. In the territory, there are people with power and there are people who feel powerless and helpless.

TIC 25 INVITES ...

... individuals whose current Roles will increasingly require the exercise of Personal Authority in accomplishing Tasks.

THE CONFERENCE STAFF

The Conference Directorate is made up of Manab Bose as Conference Director and Gracy Jebastina as Associate Conference Director.

The working language is English. Membership is normally restricted to 25. A Certificate will be made available to Members who complete the conference.
